

MARINA TENANT REMINDERS

- Please refrain from cleaning fish on the docks. The nearest fish cleaning station is located just north of the marina, at the Edmonds Public Fishing Pier. Please do not dispose of fish waste into marina waters.
- The Port of Edmonds marina is a 'no wake zone.' As a courtesy to other boaters, please abide by the speed limit and travel slowly while in the marina.

INTRODUCING THE MARY LOU BLOCK PUBLIC PLAZA

In honor of the late Commissioner Mary Lou Block, on July 26, 2021, Port Commissioners approved Resolution 21-02 that officially renamed the Port of Edmonds Public Plaza to the Mary Lou Block Public Plaza. A plaque in her honor was recently installed there for all to enjoy. Commissioner Block was the first female Commissioner for the Port of Edmonds. She had a heart for public service and the environment, and is greatly missed by her Port family.

FAREWELL TO NORM MANNHALTER

Our trusty Security Supervisor (and resident prankster) Norm Mannhalter is headed for the sunny skies of Arizona. Norm has been an instrumental part of the Port's security program and has diligently looked after the marina and Harbor Square for the past 15 years. Norm's friendly candor and smiling face will be missed by all. We thank Norm for his dedicated service to the Port, and we wish him success as he attempts to improve his golf swing.
